-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 21 December 2004.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The declaration filed on December 21, 2004 under 37 CFR 1.131 is sufficient to overcome the Phillips 6,374,719 reference.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-7 and 55-60 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Eisenberg 5,520,119.

Eisenberg teaches a lap tray comprising a tray 14, a plurality of wells 24, 28, which are offset from one or more of the other wells and an attachment device 22. As to the limitations set forth in the claims of the various parts of the tray being "sized to" or referencing the size of the various parts of the tray in view of the items they are intended to hold, these are recitations of intended use which fail to structurally define the claimed apparatus from the tray of Eisenberg. It has been held that a recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus satisfying the claimed structural limitations. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647 (1987).

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-7 and 55-60 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claim 14 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. Claims 16, 18, 19, 24, 40-54 and 61-88 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed January 23, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

8. In response to applicant's argument that Eisenberg does not teach "a tray having a plurality of wells or openings, each of the wells or openings being sized to accommodate the shank of a respective fastener", a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. It is submitted that the well of Eisenberg is large enough to accommodate not only the shank but a complete fastener lying in the well. Applicants well as claimed does not structurally distinguish from the well of Eisenberg.

Conclusion

9. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
